

PELHAM, N. H.

Closing Exercises of Eighth Grade at Centre School—The Program.

(Special Correspondence.)

Pelham, N. H., June 16.

The closing exercises at the graded school at the Centre were much enjoyed this afternoon, the program being furnished by scholars of the eighth grade.

Miss Mary F. Wallace of Lowell has just completed her first year teaching this school and much satisfaction is felt over her service. The program follows:

Song, "Welcome, Pretty Primrose;" "Opportunity," Arthur Mansfield; "June," Julia Tillotson; song, "My Mother;" "Abou Ben Adhen," Chester Morris; "The Nightingale and the Glow-Worm," Grace Lewis; song, "Stars of the Summer Night;" "A Hint to Teachers," Ivy Noyes; "Our Civic League," Lillian Calvert; "The Singing Lesson," Ruby Guild; "The Rhodora," Viola Burton; song, "Fairy Sleep;" "A Song of Our Flag," Earle Fox; "Union and Liberty," Abbie Mann; song, "When the Bloom Is on the Rye;" "The Recessional," Dorothy Atwood; "The Thrush's Nest," Lillian Lewis; "Polonias Adiva to Laertes," (Hamlet), Benjamin Jacobowitz; presentation of diplomas, Rev. Milton V. McAlister; song, "Santa Lucia."

All the other schools in town closed this afternoon also, and pleasing programs featured the exercises.

Miss Grace Davis, Miss Eliza Smith, Frederick Greeley and Ralph Hillman graduated from Nashua high school today.

The condition of William F. Richardson is now very critical and a consultation of doctors was held today.