

Former Pelham Pastor Dies

30

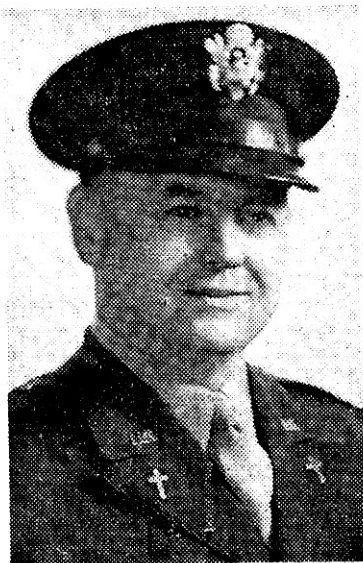

MAY 17

Rev. Claude E. Adams
Stricken During Conference

PELHAM, N. H.—Rev. Claude E. Adams died in Littleton, N. H., yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Adams was currently serving as pastor of the Methodist church in Littleton, and was stricken ill last week while attending the New Hampshire Methodist conference in Groveton.

He served as pastor of the First Congregational church in

Rev. Claude E. Adams

Pelham Center from September, 1929, to September, 1933. After leaving Pelham, he filled pulpits in Epping, N. H., Lawrence, Mass., and Nashua, N. H. He enlisted in the U. S. Army as a chaplain and on his discharge was assigned to Peterboro, N. H., and thence to Littleton.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Harriet Adams; a daughter, Mrs. Esther Dolan of Lawrence, Mass., and a son, Charles, of Littleton.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning in Fairmount, Indiana.