

Two Lowell Girls Injured in Pelham

— —

Tire Blowout Causes Car to
Hurtle Embankment

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., Sept. 13.—

Three young women, one from this town and two Lowell residents, are at St. Joseph's hospital, Lowell, following an automobile accident at Center bridge here yesterday.

The women, Miss Barbara Atwood, of this town and the Misses Charlotte and Ruth Koehler, 941 Broadway, Lowell, were occupants of a car driven by Charlotte Koehler. A front tire blowout caused the driver to lose control of the car, which plunged over an embankment at the bridge.

The driver sustained a broken elbow and leg injuries while the other two occupants were shaken up and sustained minor cuts and bruises. They were taken to the hospital by local townspeople.