

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 30, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Atwood of Pelham Center were guests at a reception at St. Patrick's parish hall in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Atwood is the former Kathleen Hunt. They were married on Dec. 27, 1931, and with the exception of a few years have lived in Pelham all their married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwood are both past masters of Pelham Grange No. 244. Mrs. Atwood is also a past president of the Pelham Parent-Teachers association and Ladies Aid society of the First Congregational church, and is active in civic activities. Mr. Atwood was chief of the Pelham volunteer fire department, and is now serving as assistant chief. They are the proprietors of the general store in Pelham center.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwood have four children: Mrs. Barbara Roden of Lisbon, N. H., Daniel S. Atwood Jr., Mrs. Eileen Robinson and Herbert H. Atwood of Pelham. They also have four grandchildren, John, Jr., and Scott Roden, and Gordon and Carolyn Robinson.

The hall was decorated in a Christmas motif and the table was arranged with a five-tier anniversary cake, silver candlesticks and cut flowers. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Atwood, Sr., parents of Mr. Atwood. and Mrs. Chester Hill was in charge of the guest book. Coffee and cake were served to approximately 150 guests throughout the afternoon. Many beautiful gifts were received as well as a purse of money. Following the reception, a buffet supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Atwood, Sr. Those in attendance were the guests of honor and their family, relatives, and close friends who assisted at the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Atwood received congratulations from many more friends and relatives who, due to the inclement weather, were unable to attend the reception.
