

Pelham

Atwood-Davies Nuptials; P.-T. A. at Horskin Home

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, June 9.—Miss Pearl L. Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Davies, became the bride of Sergt. Willis H. Atwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Atwood, Tuesday evening at a 7 o'clock double-ring ceremony performed at the Congregational parsonage by Rev. George B. Williams. Mrs. Hector Parker, of Chelmsford, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Lieut. Harry H. Atwood, Jr., the bridegroom's brother, was best man.

The bride wore a dress of white jersey with a corsage of pink roses, while her bridesmaid wore pink jersey with corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a family reception was held at the town hall when an informal buffet supper was served. The young couple left on a wedding trip, and will live in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, after next week where Sergt. Atwood is a radio instructor at the Air Forces Technical Training school.

Miss Eleanor Sanborn and Mr. Frederic C. Merriman were married last Saturday afternoon at the bride's home in Sanbornton, N. H. They plan to live in Ithaca, N. Y., where Mr. Merriman is a graduate assistant in chemistry at Cornell university.

Pvt. Frederick W. Garland, Jr., who was reported last week as seriously ill in a hospital in the European area, now is improved, according to word just received by his parents from the war department.

The Parent-Teacher association members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Horskin last night after the regular meeting, which took place in the junior high school. The men had charge of refreshments which they prepared at the outdoor fireplace near the shore of White's pond.