

SHERBURNE—BANCROFT

In the presence of only their immediate relatives, 35 in number, Miss Harriette Bancroft, daughter of Mrs. Harriette Bancroft of 1613 Middlesex street, and Mr. Ronald Sherburne, son of Mrs. Gardner W. Sherburne of Pelham, N. H., were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Dr. George Crosswell Cressey, former pastor of the South Parish Unitarian church of Tyngsboro and now of Boston.

The bride was attended by Miss Clara A. Robeson of Tyngsboro as bridesmaid, while Mr. Kirk H. Bancroft jr., was the best man.

The bride's gown was of white satin with overskirt of lace, in bouffant style, with low back. Her veil was of net, lace trimmed and arranged about the face in cap effect and held in place with a band of orangeblossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies, combined with maidenhair fern.

Miss Robeson's gown was of egg-shell moire with uneven drapery trimmed with tangerine and green. She carried a bouquet of tangerine butterfly roses, tied with tulle of the same color. Miss Florence Brown, at the piano, furnished appropriate wedding music before and after the performing of the ceremony.

The decoration of the home was particularly lovely, autumn leaves being combined with quantities of asters, dahlias and chrysanthemums. In the living room a great arch of golden autumn leaves was combined with golden brown chrysanthemums and it was before this arch that the ceremony was performed.

The bride presented both her bridesmaid and pianist a necklace and bracelet to harmonize with her gown. The bridegroom presented his best man a bill fold.

A dainty buffet lunch was served after the reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne left by automobile for a trip through the mountains. On their return they will be at home to their friends at Concord, N. H.

The gifts received by the young couple were beautiful and useful. They included pewter, silver, glass, etc., as well as several substantial cheques.

The bride is a graduate of the Lowell high school and was a member of the office staff of the Union National bank. Mr. Sherburne is a graduate of the Lowell high school and the University of New Hampshire. He is associated with the firm of C. H. Buell of Boston.
