

Young Men Who Have Reached 21 Years of Age Since Last Year Will Register Today.

Pelham, N. H., June 4.

Young men who have become 21 years of age since June 5, 1917, will register for the selective draft tomorrow, June 5, at Milford, N. H., the office of the local board.

Pelham Grange has an interesting program for this week Wednesday night when an "Old Home Night" will be held. The program is in charge of Mrs. Katie Donovan. A quartet, directed by Miss Anna Roth of Dracut, will be present and Rev. M. V. McAlister will speak in connection with the theme of the evening. There will be other speakers. All past-masters will be devoted to making the meeting of especial interest to older members.

Soldiers' kits purchased with money donated by the L. O. Club, were despatched yesterday to Private Cyrelle Bedard, at Camp J. E. Johnston, Fla. Kits are also being prepared to be sent to Roswell Raymond and John Guild, who recently were ordered to Camp Devens.

The Red Cross auxiliary meeting at the public library this week Thursday afternoon will be made interesting to the workers, who will assemble at 1.30. Mrs. Sabin of Nashua, head of surgical dressing there, will lecture and Mrs. Shedd, head of the yarn department, will also speak. All women in town are extended a cordial invitation to join in the work and interest themselves in the meetings which are to be held every Thursday afternoon.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kendrick Sunday afternoon, the services being held at the home in Mammoth road. Rev. M. V. McAlister officiated. Mrs. Kendrick had taught in the public schools of this town for several years and she had endeared herself to a large circle of friends, who deeply mourn her death. Burial was in the Gibson cemetery, Joseph Johnson, Howard H. Chase, Herman Chase, William Taylor, Sidney Grant and Robert Bell acting as bearers.

There were many beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Daniel G. Carleton is teaching in the Gumpus district.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Palmer are visiting at the home of their son, Aaron E. Palmer at the centre.

Mrs. Mary St. Goddard has sold her farm to Mr. Boulanger of Lowell and purchased the Frank Corson place at Gage Hill.

The Ladies' Club met with Mrs. Enoch M. Marsh this afternoon, enjoying a pleasant social session. The club voted to purchase a new flag for the common and will run a series of entertainments to secure the necessary funds. Mrs. Ilda Hobbs was appointed a committee to purchase the flag.
