

PELHAM, N. H.

Pelham, N. H., July 26.

Fourteen local Boy Scouts of Troop 25, Pelham, enjoyed the 4-day jamboree at Hampton beach held last week. Local scouts were under the leadership of Frederick Houle, assistant scoutmaster. The scouts supplied their own tentage and cooked their own meals and figured quite prominently in some of the competitive events of the four-day program. A silver trophy was awarded this troop in scoutcraft demonstration—the scouts constructing a bridge without nails or other metal fastening. Honorable mention and a blue ribbon was also won by this troop for the highest percentage of registered members present.

Gala Day Planned.

Annual gala day for the benefit of Pelham Congregational church will be held early in August. The program of the day will be advertised in these columns when fully arranged.

Mrs. Alice M. Overlock and two nieces, the Misses Martha and Dorothy Overlock, are at the Draycotte cottage, Hampton beach, for two weeks. They entertained several Pelham friends during the week, including Miss Mary Koehler, Miss Hilda Peabody, Miss Marion and Miss Phyllis Atwood.

Mrs. Florence Piper of New York City, formerly of this town, is visiting in the home of Mrs. Carl M. Mansfield for a week.

Frederick A. Greeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Greeley of this town, in the service of the Smithsonian Institute, has just concluded in Egypt is at home for a few months. His next location will be in California.