

Pelham, N. H.

Sadie A. Brown, granddaughter of Mr. John Carr, a well-known farmer of this town, died in New York city, where she was visiting friends, last week. The funeral took place at Mr. Carr's home on Friday and was very largely attended.

Mr. Geo. F. Cloyd of this town, a young man well and favorably known in Lowell, met with a fatal accident at Seavey's mills Thursday of last week. Mr. Cloyd was unloading logs and got caught between two of them and was crushed in a terrible manner. The accident happened about 9 o'clock in the forenoon and he died at 5 in the afternoon. The funeral of Mr. Cloyd took place from the residence of his grandfather Monday afternoon. There were many citizens of the town present. Rev. Mr. Berry conducted the services, which were in charge of F. A. Cutter, esq. The bearers were Frank H. Hillman, William H. Thompson, Geo. A. Stevens and Allen E. Lewis. The interment took place at the cemetery at the Centre. Mr. Cloyd's age was 31 years.
