

Daniel G. B. Burns, a much respected citizen of this town, died suddenly at his home at Pelham Centre last night. He had been in failing health for several months, and lately his condition had become so uncertain as to cause him to pass in his resignation as tax collector, which position he had held and filled with much credit for the past 15 years. He has served the town as representative in the state legislature and held various town offices. He was a prominent Granger and Odd Fellow, and was also a member of the United Order of Pilgrim Fathers until the time of the suspension of that organization. A man of wide acquaintance, friendly and cordial to all, a staunch New England character, he will be missed by his townsmen.

DANIEL G. B. BURNS.