

PELHAM, N. H. — Rev. George Kilcoyne, pastor of St. Patrick's church, officiated at the wedding ceremony April 26 at which Miss Dorothy A. Patenaude, daughter of Mr. Mrs. and Walter J. Patenaude of Gumpus road, became the bride of Eugene Carter, son of Herman Carter of Mammoth road and the late Mrs. Carter.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in chantilly lace over satin, en train, with fingertip veil falling from a small headpiece. She carried a prayer book covered with a white orchid and streamers of stephanotis.

Mrs. Richard Glance of Lowell, Mass., was matron of honor and Miss Barbara McNeil was bridesmaid with Miss Janet Patenaude, sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. The honor attendant wore blue nylon net over satin with matching headpiece and carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids were similarly gowned, one each in yellow and pink, with flowers to match their gowns.

Honorary matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph Ouellette, godmother of the bride.

Richard Carter was best man for his brother and usher was Clifford J. Patenaude of
