

Many Guests Present at the Kezer-Cloyd Wedding Yes- terday Afternoon.

Pelham, June 18.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the residence of Miss M. Amanda Cloyd today at 1 o'clock, when her adopted daughter, Lena Agnes Cloyd, was united in marriage to Lawrence Woodman Kezer, of Lowell.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, of the First Trinitarian church of Lowell, on the colonial porch, which had been converted into a bower of greenery and mountain laurel for the occasion, the guests occupying the spacious lawn. The bride was charmingly gowned in white charmeuse and carried bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Josephine Kezer, the sister of the bridegroom. The bride's brother, Mr. Clark Cook, acted as best man. Miss Kezer wore pink crepe de chine and carried pink sweet peas. Miss Amanda Cloyd, tastefully attired in lavender crepe meteor, gave the bride away. The double ring service was used. The "Bridal Chorus" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" were played by Miss Marion Bagley, of Amesbury. The ushers were Erle Farnham and F. C. Collins of Lowell, William Patterson of New Boston, and Albert T. Jones, of Pelham. All the wealth of June had been brought in from field and woods to help beautify the young bride's home. In the daisy-strewn dining room refreshments were served by four young ladies of Miss Cloyd's former Sunday school class, Misses Bertha George, Elizabeth Dykes, Lillian Hines and Alona Harvey. The young couple left in an automobile amid showers of confetti and good wishes. They will spend part of their honeymoon in Maine and Vermont and later return to live at the Cloyd residence.

The esteem and affection felt for the young people were shown by a host of wedding gifts, comprising silver, cut glass, china, linen, pictures, furniture and money.

Guests were present to the number of 200 from Lowell, Somerville, Fitchburg, Amesbury, New Boston and Pelham.
