Well-Known Woman Dies Suddenly—New Bridge over Beaver Brook

Pelham, N. H., Oct. 17.

Mrs. Helen Gertrude (Hillman) Currier, wife of Henry M. Currier, died at the Currier homestead in the Highland district today, aged 69 years, 8 months and 3 days. Mrs. Currier was taken seriously ill yesterday about noon, afflicted by a shock.

A slight shock was suffered by her in 1929 and failing eyesight during recent years lessened in large measure her active participation in local affairs. A circle of friends will deeply regret her passing.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons, Richard H. Currier of this town and George Frank Currier, of Old Lyme, Conn., and four grandchildren, Edward and Herbert Currier of this town, Mrs. Gertrude C. Jones of Lowell and Joan F. Currier of Old Lyme, Conn.

Farm Bureau Members Tour.

Twenty members of the local Farm Bureau Extension Service participated in an educational shopping tour arranged by Miss Myrtis Beecher and Miss Hazel Hill, leaders and joined in by members from other towns last Friday. All met at Manchester Chamber of Commerce rooms and were conducted by the leaders through departments of several stores where instructive talks were given by respective managers. Mrs. Emma M. Seavey and Mrs. Noreen D. Brown of the Pelham contingent served as models.

The tour was highly successful and much appreciated by all members.

The first of a series of moving picture entertainments under the direction of the Pelham P.-T. A. was held at the town hall last Friday evening. The affair was in charge of Mrs. Daniel S. Atwood, assisted by Mrs. Thelma Boutwell and Mrs. Lucy Koehler.

Rev. and Mrs. Clifford W. Laws and son David of New Haven, Vt., are visiting Mrs. Laws' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Atwood at the Centre.

The P.-T. A. met at the high school last Thursday evening in regular session. Mrs. Shirley R. Vining and Miss Gertrude Cousing had charge of the evening's program which was devoted to a travel talk given by Mr. Sully of Rhode Island, and Mr. Ferman of Manchester, N. H., who instructed in games and recreation.

Mr. Ferman is connected with the County Extension Service. The Misses Bedard of Gage Hill sang, accompanied by guitar and piano.

A large delegation of local 4-H Club members attended the "round-up" at Amherst, N. H., held recently. They were chaperoned by Rev. Herbert Gale, Mrs. May Sherburne, Mrs. Ann Biggar and Mrs. Gertrude Garland.

Eight of the local Boy Scouts enjoyed a sight seeing trip to the mountains Oct. 2. They were driven to their destination by Donald Burton and were accompanied by their leader, Walter S. Burton.

New Beaver Brook Bridge.

A new bridge is being constructed over Beaver brook at North Pelham, just below the Old Butler mills, where the double bridges are located.

The cement bridge over the east channel was constructed by the town of Windham a few years ago so the expense of this bridge falls to Pelham. The construction is of wood treated with creosote.

Bill Atwood shot a fox yesterday, the first in his hunting experience.
