

Curriers Honored.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Currier of this town who were married April 1, were principals at a happy occasion at the State House at Concord, N. H., today, where they were presented a silver serving set and candelabra by 91 members and attaches of the state legislature in appreciation of the services that Mr. Currier has rendered as a house page at the present session.

Following prayer at the opening of today's session, Mr. and Mrs. Currier were called to the speaker's stand and routine business was suspended that a set of resolutions might be read and the presentation made. This is Mr. Currier's second term as a page in the House of Representatives.

Mr. Currier accepted the beautiful gifts in behalf of himself and wife, formerly Miss Martha E. Mansfield, R. N., of Waterbury, Vt., and responded in a pleasing manner over the microphone.

All members joined enthusiastically in the occasion, heaping congratulations upon the happy young couple, and a copy of resolutions was presented them, bearing the seal of the state of New Hampshire.

The resolutions follow:

Whereas, we have learned with great pleasure and even greater satisfaction, that Herbert S. Currier, our genial, brown eyed, handsome, curly haired, willing, friendly and accommodating page of Division 3, having decided to walk the plank and jump off the deep end into the turbulent and enervating sea of matrimony, and

Whereas, in accordance with the above decision, said Herbert S. Currier, hath taken unto himself a wife,—a charming, beautiful and talented lady, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we, the undersigned, wish to express our appreciation of his services as a Page of the House of Representatives and to extend to him and Mrs. Currier our very best wishes for a long and happy married life and be it further

Resolved, that we hereby submit to the said Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Currier a copy of these resolutions.
