

PELHAM, N. H.

---

Many Relatives and Friends Attend Curran-Jones Wedding at Congregational Church.

---

Pelham, N. H., Sept. 1.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday at the Congregational church when Miss Helen L. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Jones of Lowell, became the bride of Mr. George F. Currier, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Currier of this town. Rev. Percy E. Thomas of Lowell performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Claude Adams, new pastor of the Pelham Congregational church. The wedding march was played by Mrs. R. H. Currier, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, who also played the accompaniment for songs sung by Miss Mildred Cheney of Lowell. The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli, snow on the mountain and palms.

Miss Jones wore a white satin gown with veil of tulle and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid, Miss Hazel Curren of Lowell, wore yellow satin and carried pink tea roses. Miss Muriel Richardson, a small cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. The best man was Mr. Paul A. Jones, the bride's brother. Mr. William E. Richardson of Pelham and Mr. John F. Wood of Lowell acted as ushers.

The bridesmaid and flower girl each received a necklace as a gift from the bride. The groom's gift to his best man was a billfold, and to the ushers, gold pieces.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The parents of both the bride and bridegroom assisted in receiving the guests. Mr. Charles C. Richardson, an uncle of the bride, directed the serving of refreshments. Names of 275 guests were signed in the register.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Currier will live at the George P. Wood home in Currier Highlands.

Rev. and Mrs. Claude E. Adams and daughter, Esther, arrived from Clay City, Ind., last Wednesday and have taken up their home at the parsonage. Rev. Mr. Adams occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church this morning.