

The 25th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Currier was celebrated at Pelham town hall Friday evening March 5. About 175 relatives and friends joined with them in honor of the occasion, the event being entirely a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Currier. The hall was decorated with crepe paper, divans and floor lamps in readiness for the reception and the arrival of the Curriers was the signal for many happy greetings and congratulations.

In behalf of friends, Arthur A. Peabody presented them a silver tray laden with silver dollars, envelopes of money and greeting cards. Other gifts of silver and china were presented them, also two beautiful floor lamps.

It was the occasion also of Mrs. Currier's birthday anniversary and she was tendered a shower of birthday cards. Relatives came from Wakefield, Tewksbury, Reading and Old Lyme, Conn. A pleasing incident of the occasion was the presence of a great aunt, Miss Helen A. Currier of Reading, 93 years of age, who helped them to celebrate and who also was pleased to renew old acquaintances in this her old home town. Music was furnished by a trio of young men—Frederick Garipey, Emil Bedard and Leo Costa and dancing was enjoyed at intervals throughout the evening. Entertainment was presented. Rev. Herbert M. Gale gave several selections on his cornet which were greatly enjoyed.

Selectmen Organize.

The board of selectmen met at the town officers' room at the public library last night to organize for the ensuing year. Charles W. Hobbs was chosen chairman.
