

ZENA CURRIER

Funeral services for Zena (Atwood) (Woodbury) Currier, of Pelham, N. H., were held at the First Congregational church in that town yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

The services, which were largely attended, were conducted by Rev. Albert C. Sundberg, Jr., pastor of that church. During the services, Mrs. Ethel M. Hayes, and Herbert S. Currier sang in duet, "The Old Rugged Cross," and, "Abide With Me," both favorite hymns of the deceased, accompanied by Miss Berneice M. Moulton, the church organist. Miss Moulton also played appropriate organ prelude and postlude selections. There were many flowers.

The Ladies aid society of the First Congregational church was represented by Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson, Mrs. Pearl Gage, Mrs. Fannie Carleton, Mrs. Alice M. Raymond, Mrs. Alice Overlock, Mrs. Neal Balcom, Mrs. Frederick Garland, Mrs. Mabel Burton, Mrs. Mary Sherburne, and Miss Florence Marsh. Other members of the church in attendance were Miss Mary Hobbs, Miss Frances Hobbs, and Miss Clara Jones.

Among the Pelham town officials at the services were Selectman Charles W. Hobbs, George P. Wood, town clerk; Lucy L. Koehler from the school department; and Arthur Peabody, police chief.

The bearers were Daniel S. Atwood, Frank W. Atwood, Willis H. Atwood, George F. Currier, Richard H. Currier, and Charles H. Koehler.

Burial took place in the family lot in Centre cemetery, Pelham, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Mr. Sundberg.
