

Pelham

---

Local Girl, Army Nurse, Arrives in Honolulu

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., April 20—Lieut. Dolores R. Ducharme of the Army Nurses corps, has notified her mother of her safe arrival at Honolulu, Hawaii. She is the daughter of Mrs. Cora Ducharme and is a native of this town, having attended grade school here, Lowell high school and St. Joseph's school for nursing in Nashua.

Following her graduation and after qualifying for registered nurse in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire, she placed her name on the Red Cross reserve list for duty. Late last summer she resigned her position in a Brockton, Mass., hospital to accept a commission in the Army Nursing corps. A few months later she was assigned to foreign duty and was ordered to Hawaii with a large group of nurses.

Lieut. Dolores Ducharme, R. N.