NEW SIMMONS LEADERS—Next year’s student officers at Simmons were announced yesterday. In front, Margaret L. West, Lexington (left), vice-president of student government, and Margaret A. Wilson, Cleveland, vice-president of student government. Rear: Margery Garland, Pelham, N. H. (left), sophomore class president; Marilyn Jackson, Augusta, Me., senior class president; Prudence Speirs, Bangor, Me., junior class president.
Pelham

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H.—Margery Garland was named president of the sophomore class at Simmons college in Boston yesterday.

Plan Choir Concert

On Sunday night, June 3, at 8 o'clock, the choir of the Congregational church will present a concert of sacred music. The program will include "Inflammatum" from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," with Miss Pearl Haines as soloist; "Alleluia" by Mozart; and "The Heavens Are Telling" from "The Creation." The choir will be augmented by several former members.

Solos will be presented by Rev. Mr. Williams, Elmer Raymond and Mrs. Ernest Brown, as well as a quartet by Miss Haines, Albert Mertrud and Mr. and Mrs. Williams. Miss Berneice M. Moulton, organist, will be the accompanist and will give several selections.

News of Servicemen

Sergt. Willis H. Atwood has been transferred from Sioux Falls, S. D., to Greensboro, N. C. He had been instructing in radio at Sioux Falls since 1942, and was joined there by his wife, the former Pearl Davies, after their marriage last June.

Tech. Sergt. Elwin S. Jewett is home at Pelham Center on a 14-day furlough from Walla Walla, Wash. Upon his return he will be assigned to the Kearns, Utah replacement center.