Mr. David M. Gould, a life-long resident of this town and having the distinction of being the oldest male resident of Pelham origin, having been awarded the Boston Post cane as such about a year and a half ago, died at his residence yesterday morning at the age of 85 years, 6 months, 28 days. He left but one son, Marshall C., who has always lived at home with his parents. Mr. Gould was of a retiring disposition, seldom taking an active part in public affairs, a man hale and hearty to meet, always a friend to the one in need and well thought of by all his townspeople. The decease of Mr. Gould marks the loss of a character, quaint and old fashioned, that will be greatly missed.
