

PELHAM, N. H., Sept. 26—Pelham Grange held its second business meeting of the month Thursday night with Velma Houle, master, presiding. Favorable balloting on the following class of candidates who are to join the organization at a special meeting on Booster night, Saturday, was the only business transacted: John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gore, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Foisie, Gretchen O'Mara, Gertrude LeRiche, George LeRiche, Eva Greenwood and Joseph Moras. The application for reinstatement of Mrs. Emily Hopkins received a favorable vote also. Worthy Master Velma Houle deserve credit for her efforts in increasing the membership more than 50 during this year.

Following the business session, a reception to the Pelham teachers was held with Mary Sherburne, lecturer, in charge. One of the most interesting programs of the year, Town History night, was presented with the following program: Community singing of old and new songs led by the music supervisor, John Priske; history of the churches, prepared by George Wood and read by his wife, Lillian Wood; history of the schools discussed by Ernest Sherburne; history of Pelham Grange by C. W. Hobbs.

These reports aroused recollections of other things of interest and the members entered an "I Remember" roll call with much spirit.
