

PELHAM

Ernest Q. Bigelow Elected Master of Grange—Benefit Whist Attracts Many— Supper Tomorrow.

Pelham, N. H., Nov. 21.

A whist party held at the town hall last night for the benefit of Pelham Grange was attended by about 50 whist fans.

There were 10 tables in play and prizes were awarded to the following: Miss Edna Smith, Miss Doris Simard, Mrs. Frances Carleton, Mrs. Teresa Muldoon, Mrs. Ella Koehler, Miss Rita Simard, Miss Frances Hobbs, Miss Shirley Ann Atwood, Mrs. Cora Butler, Frank M. Carleton, Charles W. Hobbs. The door prize was won by Miss May Doherty and consolation prizes were given Miss Helen Doherty and Charles Zolkos. Refreshments were served.

Annual election of officers was held at Pelham Grange meeting last Thursday night which constituted the chief business of the evening.

The following were chosen for the year beginning the first Thursday in January: Master, Ernest Q. Bigelow; overseer, Miss Helen Morris; lecturer, Mrs. Thelma Houle; steward, Charles W. Hoobs, assistant steward, Harry Leonard; chaplain, Miss Hazel Spaulding; treasurer, Mrs. Alice Raymond; secretary, Miss Velma Smith; Ceres, Miss Dorothy Bennett; Pomona, Mrs. Louise Hayes; Flora, Miss Dorella Gingras; lady assistant steward, Miss Rita Simard; executive committee for three years, Theodore Patenaude and for one year, Frederick Houle.

The election of gate keeper was put over until next meeting.

A chicken pie supper will be held at Pelham town hall this week Thursday night in accord with the presidential proclamation for the observance of Thanksgiving day. Come, and be sure of the "first leg" in this season of dual celebrations. Entertainment will follow the repast, furnished by the young people of the Christian Endeavor. All welcome. See adv.

The son born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Atwood of South Lyme, Conn., Nov. 12, has been named Herbert Hunt.

1939