

Pelham

Bronze Star Awarded T-5 F. A. Greenwood

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., Aug. 11.—Mrs. Ching and her son, Yi Chuan, are guests of Miss Mary Cutter at Stone Bridge camp on Sherburne road. The friends became acquainted in Hawaii a few years ago. Mrs. Ching's husband, formerly a professor at Peking, now is a professor at Kuming university in China. The university was bombed out of two locations

Decorated

T-5 Francis A. Greenwood with an army medical battalion has been awarded the Bronze star medal for meritorius achievement in Holland last winter. He distinguished himself by his interest in the health of troops visiting the rest center. His citation was signed by Maj. Gen. L. S. Hobbs, commanding officer.