

Pelham, Dec. 25—The funeral service of the late Warren W. Herbert, in charge of Charles W. Hobbs, took place at the residence at Oak Grove farm yesterday afternoon, Rev. Charles L. Merriam of Derry officiating, assisted by Rev. Melvin J. Allen recently called to the Pelham Congregational church pulpit. Selections were sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Dr. Hyde, Mrs. E. A. Greeley, Mr. Howard H. Chase and Rev. Mr. Merriam. Several beautiful floral tributes were offered, among which was a "pillow" from the family; spray, A. M. Hamblett and family, of Brockton; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamblett; spray, Mrs. Geo. W. Hamblett and daughters, of Lowell; spray, John W. Hamblett of Brockton; wreath, J. E. Marden of Portland, Me.; wreath, Mrs. O. W. Spaulding. The bearers were the four sons of the deceased—Almon W., Amos K., Fred W., and Charles G., who laid the body at rest in the family lot at the North Pelham cemetery.

W. W. HERBERT.