

Charlie Hobbs is convalescing with a fractured wrist sustained last Thursday afternoon while engaged in football scrimmage with a dozen other boys at the Centre. The bone was set and put in a plaster cast at St. Joseph's hospital, Lowell. He was unable to attend the reopening of Pelham high school here Wednesday.

All the schools in town opened for the fall term Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Koehler and Mrs. Raymond Langlois enjoyed last week-end and the holiday at the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Koehler and family enjoyed a week-end trip to York Beach, Me., Milan C. Stickney substituting for Mr. Koehler on the local R. F. D. route during his absence from duty. Miss Ethel Koehler enjoyed the holidays in Lisbon, Me.

Mrs. Clara C. Jack and Miss Mary Muldoon recently enjoyed a trip by boat to Nova Scotia. They sailed from Boston, landing at Yarmouth, and from there visiting Digby.

Ladies Aid Picnic.

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church enjoyed a picnic at the summer home of Mrs. Robert J. McCormick at White's pond today. It was the regular September meeting of the society.

The combined forces of the WPA and TRA are now engaged in repairing Ledge road in Gage Hill. They have completed the repair of tallant road.