

PELHAM, N. H.

Pelham, N. H., March 15.

C. Winthrop Hobbs enlisted in the naval reserves at the recruiting office in Lowell, yesterday, and will take the final examination at Boston Saturday morning. His application was entered for second class seaman.

Charles B. Stickney has been transferred from Newport training station to New York harbor on the S. S. City of Lowell, and is now doing service in that harbor on a receiving ship.

Frank H. Lewis has entered the radio school at Newport training station.

Albert S. Tallant at Fort McKinley, Me., has been confined to the hospital there for several weeks. First taken with measles and since suffering with an attack of mumps. A bad ear trouble has developed lately which now shows some improvement.

William G. Livingstone has lately been detailed for guard duty in New Jersey with headquarters at Naval armory, Brooklyn, N. Y.