

The Marriage of Mr. Samuel Hobbs and Miss Marian Ella Colman.

(Special Correspondence.)

Pelham, N. H., Oct. 15.

A pretty fall wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Colman when their daughter, Marian Ella was united in marriage with Mr. Samuel Hobbs. Both are natives of the town, beloved and popular young people. Only the immediate families and a few young friends were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. J. L. Hoyle, who was for many years pastor in the town. The ceremony took place under a beautiful arch of laurel, asparagus and carnations. The bridegroom was accompanied by his brother, Winthrop, who was best man. The bridesmaid was Miss Frances Hobbs. The double ring service was used and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. F. H. Hillman played the wedding march and also entertained with favorite selections during the reception which followed. A. L. Favor of Melrose Highlands sang several very fine selections. The reception was largely attended by the townspeople and many friends and relatives from surrounding towns and cities. The bride was most beautiful in a charming gown of white silk, her long veil was caught with lilies of the valley. She carried white roses. The bridesmaid's pretty gown was of pink crepe and satin, she carried pink roses. Mrs. C. H. Colman was beautifully gowned in green silk and lace. Mr. Harry Jack and Mr. Charles B. Stickney were ushers.

The bridegroom's present to his best man and ushers were sapphire stick pins. The bride gave her bridesmaid a brass desk set.

The Misses Mae and Nellie Muldoon of Pelham, Mrs. Bertha Harwood of Hudson and Mrs. Eva Saltmarsh of Roxbury, Mass., served in the dining room which was prettily decorated with asparagus and pinks. The young couple left amid showers of confetti and good wishes.

The bridegroom is an engineer in the employ of the Massachusetts Highway commission. On their return from the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs will be situated in Uxbridge, Mass.

The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful, consisting of silver, cut glass, china, linen, money, etc., and attested to the popularity of the young couple.
