

Pelham

Pelham, June 9—A June wedding took place Saturday evening when Harriet Ruth Hobbs of Pelham became the bride of Wayne C. LaBelle of Lowell, Mass, at the Dracut Center Congregational parsonage. Rev Samuel Young, pastor, assisted by Rev Thomas Roden of Pelham, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a smart grey suit and a white picture hat and white accessories, and a corsage of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Frances Louise Hobbs, who wore a tan suit and hat with blue accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Gerard Le Febre of Connecticut acted as best man, and the bride was given in marriage by her father, Charles Winthrop Hobbs.

At the ceremony were Mr and Mrs Raymond LaBelle, parents of the groom; Mr and Mrs LaBelle, grandparents of the groom, of Irving, Mass. The youngest guest present was Charles Winthrop Hobbs, 3rd, infant son of Mr and Mrs Charles W. Hobbs of Pelham. Misses Eleanor Forrest and Yvonne Ducharme, close friends of the bride, were also guests.

The wedding party proceeded to the Pelham Congregational social rooms where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to congratulate the youthful couple.

Lunch was served by Mrs Alice Day, the groom's aunt, and Miss Mary Hobbs, and Miss Frances Hobbs, aunts of the bride, and Mrs LaBelle assisted.

Iris and sweet rocket were used in decorative bouquets with lilies-of-the-valley on the banquet tables. Many beautiful gifts were attractively displayed. The wedding cake was a gift of Mrs Day.

During the reception Sidney Richardson of Pelham entertained with piano selections.

The young couple left for a wedding trip to the White Mountains. Upon their return they will reside in Tyngsboro, Mass.
