

PELHAM, N. H.

P.-T. A. Sponsors Annual School Picnic—Junior High Graduates 18.

Pelham, N. H., June 21.

The annual school picnic sponsored by the Pelham Parent-Teachers Association was enjoyed at Hadley's beach, Cobbett's pond today, where all the schools in town joined in celebrating the occasion. Numerous games and contests were participated in throughout the day in charge of Mrs. Marion Connors, County Recreation director, and swimming was enjoyed under the supervision of competent instructors and life guards.

The strawberry supper and entertainment held at Congregational church last Tuesday evening under the direction of the Ladies Aid society was well attended and proved a pleasant social evening to those attending. Entertainment was provided by members of Pelham Grange, who presented a minstrel show with marked success.

E. J. Teer, observer at Jeremy hill lookout station, reports an exceptional rainfall for June as compared with data taken by him in previous years. During 24 hours tabulated from 8 o'clock a. m. June 19 to 8 o'clock June 20, 2.12 inches registered, and for the 20 days of June ending at that time 7.92 inches were recorded in data taken and forwarded to the U. S. Weather Bureau Service at Boston.

The local branch of the American Red Cross will hold swimming classes the first week in July at Hadley's beach, Cobbett's pond. Anyone wishing to join is asked to give names to either Mrs. Alice M. Overlock or Phyllis Atwood.

Pelham junior high school graduation exercises were held at the town hall, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. There were many parents and townspeople present to enjoy the exercises. The graduates: Frank W. Atwood, Helen F. Bedard, Lorraine B. Bedard, Stephen Dennis, Roderick W. Ducharme, Bryant L. Fairbanks, Franklin A. Garland, Alan M. Guild, Hazel A. Harris, Florence E. Hobbs, Ethel A. Koehler, Earle E. Leavitt, Ruth A. McCallum, John Nariniak, Annie L. Neskey, Hilda E. Peabody, Eileen M. Seamans, Andrea F. van Copenolle. The program was arranged and directed by Robert W. Googins, principal, and Miss Bernice Lester, assistant. Professor John Priske was accompanist.