

Pelham

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., Feb. 25—Warren J. Kennedy, carpenter's mate, first class, of this town, is senior man in his department in charge of carpenters mates, ship fitters and salvage divers. He graduated from the diving school on board

Warren J. Kennedy

the Normandie, Pier 87, in New York.

He transferred to the navy yard, Philadelphia, then to Mare Island navy yard, Calif., after which he served on the U. S. S. Escape in the Pacific and at present is on the Atlantic seaboard on active duty.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Kennedy of Pelham, N. H., and a graduate of Pelham and Lowell high schools.

He has been in the navy 15 months.