

Pelham

Honor Roll Dedication Features Memorial Day

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., June 1—Memorial day exercises were attended by about 200 townspeople and friends in this vicinity. The usual custom of forming in line and marching to the Center cemeteries where graves were decorated was observed after which the North Pelham district school children participated in a short program arranged by their teacher, Miss Gretchen O'Mara and held in the Congregational church. Rev. George Williams gave an address and Elmer G. Raymond sang the solos. The audience joined in singing also. Dinner was served in the church dining room under the direction of Miss Hazel Spaulding.

The dedication of the Honor Roll took place at 2 o'clock. The program was as follows: Allegiance to flag, Star Spangled Banner; introductory remarks, Ernest Q. Bigelow, chairman of board of selectmen; invocation, Rev. Mr. Williams; selection by choir of St. Patrick's church, accompanied by Mrs. Rose Beauchesne; Gettysburg address, Clifton E. Hayes; solo, God Bless America, Elmer Raymond; unveiling of Honor Roll, pause and reverence for three gold stars; selection by choir of Congregational church, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Moulton; address, "Patriotism," Rev. Fr. Boyd; America, led by the two choirs; benediction, Rev. Mr. Williams.

The choir of the Congregational church of Pelham will present a musical service of worship on Sunday night. Miss Pearl Haines will be the guest soloist. There also will be solos by Elmer Raymond and Rev. Mr. Williams.