

Pelham, N. H., April 22

The third of the series of Mother craft meetings will be held at Pelham junior high school this week Friday night. Dr. Winograd will be the speaker and the subject will be "Infant Feeding." All mothers and friends are cordially invited.

Charlie Hobbs who suffered a broken bone in his left wrist at a Boy Scout meeting two weeks ago is still forced to carry his arm in a sling. The splints will be removed in about another week.

The Selectmen expect to complete the annual inventory April 24. There will be but little change in the grand total of the appraisal.

Men in the employ of the State Highway department have been busy the past week preparing the Marsh road and the Muldoon road for an oil coating. The state scraper, scarifier, water tanks and roller have put these roads into excellent shape and the oil will be applied the first of the coming week. The Marsh road connects the Mammoth road with Pelham Centre.

The local WPA unit is employed at present with town employees in repairing the Joseph Landry highway off Mammoth road. The combining of these two forces in repairing highways is working out to much advantage to the town, besides being highly satisfactory to the people in various localities.

George A. Leather's portable gasoline sawmill outfit will complete operations on the Edwin J. Atwood lot at Pelham Centre within a week or so. Mr. Leathers is advertising plenty of green sawdust for sale at a reasonable price, attractive to all users in nearby towns. See adv.

The outfield at Smith's ball park is being scraped and reconditioned preparatory for the season's games. Plan Minstrel Show.

Pelham A. A. is planning its annual minstrel show for some date in May not yet decided. Rehearsals will begin shortly.

Willie A. Richardson recently under treatment at Shaw's hospital, Lowell, is convalescing at home at South Bridge.

Miss Phyllis Atwood, Miss Helen Zalkos and Miss Ruth Richardson, students at Keene Normal school, are at home for the week.

Miss Caroline A. Smith, who has been visiting Mrs. Alfred Sawyer at Chelmsford for the winter returned to her home in Pelham Centre yesterday.

Mrs. Alice M. Overlock, Mrs. E. Francis Carleton, Mrs. Beatrice Vining and Mrs. Kathleen Atwood attended the Republican Women's luncheon at Hotel Carpenter, Manchester, Tuesday.

Everett A. Richardson of this town and Miss Eugenia Buckley of Clifton Station, Va., were married Saturday, April 10 at Massachusetts, Va., by Rev. Dechaunt, pastor of the Methodist church where they attend. Miss Buckley teaches in the Florence Crittendon Home school for girls in that city.

Otis G. Giles was the guest of his brother, Harper B. Giles at Concord, N. H., over the week-end.

Pelham grangers enjoyed a "mystery ride" that took them to Concord, Mass., where all attended regular grange meeting last Tuesday.