

PELHAM

Mrs. Zena B. Woodbury Is Married to Henry M. Currier—Local Girls at Youth Institute Camp.

Pelham, N. H., Aug. 7.

Mrs. Zena B. (Atwood) Woodbury, and Mr. Henry M. Currier, both residents in Pelham Centre, were married this evening at the residence of Rev. William Milligan in Dracut, Mass., pastor of Immanuel Baptist church in Lowell. Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Greeley stood up with the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Currier will reside at the Woodbury home at the Centre.

Mrs. Anna Mae Stickney, her mother, Mrs. Drummer and her daughter, Shirley Annetta, left this morning for Belgrade Lakes, Me., where they will join Mr. Stickney until after Labor day.

The Misses Florence E. Hobbs and Gertrude Ducharme are attending Youth Institute camp at University of New Hampshire, Durham.

Arrangements for Old Home day at Pelham, to be held this week Wednesday, are now practically complete. The program will contain numbers entirely new in presentation, locally—numbers which are bound to feature in interest and amusement.

Mr. Hinds, chairman of the general committee, has been ably assisted by Miss Helen M. Morris, secretary; Mrs. E. Frances Carleton and Ernest Q. Bigelow in providing a program of fun for all and every effort is being made to make this occasion a standout. The program was but partially outlined in yesterday's writeup. Additional features will be a tug-of-war between the two companies of the local Fire department and of especial interest will be participation in the parade by Girl Scout troops from Camp Runels, Island pond, who always add much color and martial effect on such occasions. There will be features to please all so plan to bring the children and stay all day. Everybody welcome. See adv.