Prepare for Annual Old Home Day Fete; Teachers Resign

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, Aug. 3—The 34th annual Old Home day will be held as usual this month. This year marks the 100th anniversary of the Pelham church building, and an appropriate program will be given in honor of the occasion. This program is to be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greeley and Mrs. Frank Carleton. A souvenir of the day will be on sale.

Plans are being made to have pony rides, races, ball game, band concert and an auction. A children's parade will take place early in the afternoon. Both dinner and supper will be served in the lunch tent.

Ernest Bigelow is general chairman, and others in charge are as follows: Lunch tent, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Atwood; ball game, Arthur Peabody; parade, Mrs. Asa Carleton; children's parade, Mrs. Clifford Laws; auction, Mrs. Russell Butter; vegetables, Frederick Garland; tonic and ice cream, Fred Lyon; candy, Mrs. Ralph Hoffman; aprons, Miss Mary Hobbs; children's table, Mrs. Ernest Overlock; fish pond, Miss Hazel Spaulding; miscellaneous, Mrs. Edith McCormick.

Jelly and preserves, Mrs. Nettie Spaulding; kitchen table, Mrs. Gerald Bagley; flowers, James Davies; games of skill, Newton Garland.

Miss Rita Bennett has returned home after spending the last two weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Bennett in Hillsboro.

Nathan Boutwell is at St. John's hospital, Lowell, where he recently underwent an eye operation.
