

"Old Home Day" Program At Pelham Church Today

PELHAM, Aug. 12—The annual "Old Home Day" sponsored by the First Congregational church is being held on the parsonage lawn. A dinner, supper, afternoon program, evening program, ball game and tables of interest to everyone will be the highlights of the day. The food tent, with the men of the YIS society in charge, will be open throughout the affair serving light lunches.

The tables will include: Flowers and international knick-knacks, the Congregational Pilgrim Fellowship in charge; candy, Mrs. Alton Hodgman; aprons, Mrs. Chester Hill and Mrs. Neal Balcom; fancy work, Mrs. Chester Jackson and Mrs. Mary Kingsbury; vegetables, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Garland; grabs, Mrs.

Maisie Richardsor and Mrs. Roy Hardy; white elephant, Mrs. George Horan; home baked foods, Mrs. Nettie Spaulding; kitchen, Mrs. Louise Hayes; children's table, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Sr.; games, Raymond Edwards and Norman Lawrence; dinner and supper, Mrs. Doris Foss, Mrs. Alma Stiles and Mrs. Cora Butler.

The afternoon program at 2 o'clock is to be presented by Miss Frances Hobbs. The evening program, with Mrs. Bernice Bigelow in charge will begin at 8 o'clock, and will be music by the Lowell Philharmonic orchestra. Walter Burton is in charge of the grounds, Arthur Peabody will oversee the ball game and Ralph Harmon is treasurer of the affair.