
PELHAM, N. H.

Pelham, N. H., April 25.

Road oil will be applied to the state-aided highways throughout the town beginning this week Thursday. Sand has already been piled conveniently for the purpose of covering the tar when spread.

Mrs. Alice M. Overlock, director of the Nashua chapter of the Red Cross and president of the local branch; Mrs. Ildie P. Hobbs, secretary; Miss Mary E. Hobbs, treasurer; Daniel S. Atwood, fire chief, and Samuel O. Tallant, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, attended a disaster relief preparedness institute for Red Cross workers in New Hampshire at the Carpenter Hotel in Manchester, N. H., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Guild were guests at the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Wolger of North Conway, N. H., last Saturday. They returned Sunday evening.

Miss Dorothy Blanche Koehler had her tonsils removed at the Lowell General hospital yesterday.

All the schools in town are closed this week for a vacation period.
