

Pelham

Police Chief in Hospital; Town Notes

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, July 9—Arthur H. Peabody, chief of police, is a patient at the Lowell General hospital where he underwent an operation Monday.

A group of eight young men was transported to Ossipee last Saturday afternoon to aid in the fighting of the severe forest fire on Mt. Shaw. They include: Samuel Raymond, Joseph Cyrus, David Gaudette, Roger Robinson, Jr., Robert Page, Ronald Ducharme, Robert Ducharme and Stephen Straughan.

The selectmen will meet at the town office this evening for the only meeting of this month. They will also meet on one date in August which is the 12th.

The annual "Old Home Day" sponsored by the First Congregational church has been planned for August 12 on the parsonage lawn.

The clambake sponsored annually by the Police Relief association will be held at the town hall on Sunday, August 23. Tickets will be available at various sources which will be announced later.

The Ladies' Aid society will sponsor food sales on the parsonage lawn the next two Saturdays, July 11 and July 18. These sales will begin at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goodwin of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting their old homestead for two weeks. They will return to Brooklyn but are planning to return to Pelham permanently.