

PELHAM, N. H.

Sudden Death of Willis E. Pearson, Well Known Resident— Moses-Richardson Wedding.

Pelham, N. H., Sept. 30.

Willis E. Pearson, a prominent local resident, died suddenly at his home in North Pelham Saturday morning, aged 64 years. His death came as a great shock to the community and while not in the best of health his condition had never been such as to be considered serious. While attending to his morning chores at the barn, he succumbed from heart failure and was found shortly after upon the floor. Besides his wife, Flora E. Pearson, he leaves one son, Elliot G. Pearson and one daughter, May E. Pearson; also one brother, George Pearson, living in Manchester, N. H.

A pretty wedding took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Richardson at the Centre, when their daughter, Miss Lols Vivian Richards, was united in marriage to Mr. Malcolm H. Moses of Loudon, by Rev. Claude E. Adams, the local pastor. Only the members of both families and a few intimate friends attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses held a reception at the town hall Saturday night and a host of friends joined in extending congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lary assisted in receiving. The guests were entertained with music, songs and dancing, with Mrs. Rena Currier at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Raymond, Miss Brown and Frederick Gariepy featured in a program of songs. There were many wedding presents. The hall was prettily decorated and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Moses left immediately after the reception for an extended tour.
