

Wladimir Kimitiuk, better known as Joseph Pillsner, who recently took poison accidentally, has recovered sufficiently to be at home from St. Joseph's hospital, Nashua. Since his return, it has been necessary to resume physician's care.

The Pelham ball team suffered defeat at the hands of the Hudson Bridge team last Thursday afternoon, the final score standing Hudson Bridge 21, Pelham 6.

Mrs. Charles H. Colman returned from Harrison, Me., Saturday night, after an extended visit in the vicinity of Lake George, with relatives. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Underhill of Manchester, N. H., who are now enjoying a few days at the Colman residence in Pelham.

Mrs. Charles W. Bailey of Saugus is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stickney.

Mrs. Macomber and Miss Macomber of Swansey are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nutting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Spear of Everett are guests at the Currier residence.

Mrs. Frank M. Woodbury, Mrs. Ernest L. Overlock, Miss Virginia Cutter and Miss Ethel M. Chase were guests of Mrs. Lena Keyser, Thursday, motoring to Old Orchard and vicinity.

During the severe thunder shower last Friday, two camps were struck by lightning at Island pond, but no one was injured. The residence of Charles N. Guild was also struck, the lightning bolt passing down the chimney side and out through the side of the building. Mr. Guild's son, Walter, felt the effects of the shock. No fire ensued. The rain fall was very heavy and the highways were washed badly in many places about town.