

THREE N. H. MEN WIN WINGS

NELSON C. TEWKSBURY

ELMER G. RAYMOND

EARL J. THIBODEAU

—Photographs by South East Army Air Forces Training Center

Three New Hampshire men who were commissioned second lieutenants and awarded silver wings of Army Air Forces pilots following their graduation Tuesday from the AAF Advanced Flying school at Napier Field, Dothan, Ala. The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tewksbury of Derry, Lieutenant Tewksbury attended Pinkerton academy and the University of New Hampshire and was accepted for flight training May 9, 1942. Lieutenant Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Raymond of Pelham, was graduated from Lowell, Mass., High school and was taken into training May 12, 1942. Lieutenant Thibodeau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thibodeau of Franklin and was graduated from Franklin High school.