

Miss Hazel Lois Richardson and Mr. William Irving Pierce were united in marriage in an impressive service at the Dracut Centre Congregational church Saturday afternoon by Rev. Richard Kellogg, who used the double ring service.

The bride, accompanied to the altar by her father, was dressed in white satin, appliqued with velvet flower petals. Her veil of tulle, edged with Chantilly, was caught with rosebuds and her bouquet was a shower of white bridal roses.

Little Barbara Bestick was flower girl and carried a basket of pink rose petals. Miss Marlon Harlow was maid of honor and was attired in blue georgette gown and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Miss Charlotte Stetson and Miss Lillian Lowe, the bridesmaids, were dressed in pink and green moire, with hats of silver lace, tied with chiffon. They carried pink roses. Mr. Edward Haskins was best man. Messrs. Forrest Richardson, Warren Pierce, Harry Pierce and Miller Bestick acted as ushers.

Mr. Asa Stickney, organist, played the wedding march and "I Love You Truly" and the "Spring Song."

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church community room. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Forrest Richardson, Mrs. Samuel Hobbs, Mrs. Charles Jack, Mrs. Ernest Sherburne, and the Misses Ellen Muldoon, Mae Muldoon, Florence Marsh and Frances Hobbs. The Amphion ladies' trio furnished music.

The church was beautifully decorated with hydrangeas, asters and greenery and the reception room with baskets of gladioli and ferns. Mrs. Mabel Jones had charge of the decorations and arrangements, and was assisted by Mrs. Asa Stickney and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce left for an automobile tour.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ashley Richardson of this town and for several years has been a kindergarten teacher in Belmont, where Mr. Pierce resides and is engaged in the automobile business.
