

Pelham

News of Servicemen; Sale and Turkey Supper

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, Dec. 8—Mrs. Katherine Robinson of Gage Hill received a telegram from the war department informing her that her son T-5 Paul Robinson was slightly wounded in action in Leyte on Nov. 4.

Sergt. Roy E. Hardy who was wounded in Leyte in October is ready for action again according to his letter home to friends.

Lieut. Harry H. Atwood, Jr., returned to Fort Benning, Ga. on Saturday following a furlough at home. While visiting friends on Friday at the University of New Hampshire in Durham, N. H., where he graduated in 1940, Lieut. Atwood bagged his first deer, a 125-pound doe.

Sergt. Willis H. Atwood of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, expects to arrive home for furlough on or about Dec. 18.

Choir Gives Christmas Concert

The choir of the Pelham Congregational church will present a concert of Christmas music on Sunday evening, Dec. 17, at 8 o'clock. Miss Pearl Haines and Mrs. Ernest Brown will be the soloists. They will be assisted by Mrs. Mary Boyle, violinist, and Miss Berneice M. Moulton, organist. One part of the program will be made up of numbers from Handel's "Messiah" and should be of interest to all.

The annual Christmas sale and turkey supper for the benefit of Pelham Congregational church will held at the town hall next Monday night. Entertainment will be provided by local talent.