

Pelham

Deer Killed by Car; Harvest Supper Held

(Special to the Sun)

PELHAM, Oct. 30—Albert Rondeau employed on a night shift in Nashua, struck and killed a 200 pound doe when motoring home from work recently. The deer jumped directly in front of his car from the roadside in Mammoth road at North Pelham and was apparently instantly killed. The car was badly damaged. Game Warden Timothy Barnard of Nashua was notified and declared Mr. Rondeau in no way to blame. He stated that the damage to the machine was wholly Mr. Rondeau's loss and allowed him to keep the deer as partial recompense.

Miss Charlotte Koehler who suffered serious injuries in an automobile accident Sept. 12 is much improved and is recuperating at St. Joseph's hospital, Lowell.

The annual harvest supper sponsored by the Ladies Aid society of the Pelham Congregational church was held in the church banquet room recently. A white elephant sale was conducted during the evening and was well patronized. The sale was in charge of Mrs. George P. Wood, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Sherburne and Mrs. Daniel Atwood. Miss Clara Jones had charge of the decorations. The supper was under the direction of the ways and means committee.

Mrs. Estelle Hyde Richardson is seriously ill at the Lowell General hospital.

Miss Yvonne Ducharme is now fully recovered from a recent operation at St. Joseph's hospital, Lowell.

Miss Frances L. Hobbs is convalescing at St. Joseph's hospital after a recent operation.