

PELHAM, N. H.

Funeral of Mrs. Saltmarsh Largely Attended—Red Cross to Establish Home Nursing Branch.

Pelham, N. H., May 13.

The funeral services of Mrs. Eva Richardson Saltmarsh of Dorchester were held this afternoon at the Pelham Congregational church, Rev. Frank Fletcher of Lebanon, N. H., and Rev. Milton V. McAlister of this town officiating. Mrs. Nettie Roberts of Lowell sang "Fleet as a Bird," "In the Garden," "The Christian's Good-Night" and "My Jesus as Thou Wilt." There was a large attendance of friends and relatives and numerous beautiful floral tributes. Mrs. Saltmarsh enjoyed a very large circle of intimate friends in this, her native town, and in surrounding cities and towns, all of whom are deeply grieved by her death. Burial was in the family lot in the Gibson cemetery, the bearers being Dr. Roland Mackenzie and Clayton Taft of Waltham, Harold Pike of Portland, Me., Herbert Sweatt of Lowell, William Tibbetts of Boston and Perley Kittredge of Watertown. The funeral arrangements were in charge of George P. Wood, with Undertaker J. S. Waterman of Roxbury having general charge.

The Nashua Red Cross has planned to start a class in home nursing and two lessons each week will be given. The course is open to all women of the town who wish to take advantage of the opportunity. Enrolment will be conducted, beginning Saturday afternoon at the library, by Miss Mary E. Hobbs. Mrs. Alice M. Overlock will be in charge locally but has been called to Bangor, Me., temporarily, to the home of her husband's parents, both of whom are seriously ill. The Red Cross promotes this work through its committee on public health activities and a complete outfit and an instructor "in the home care of the sick," from Boston will be furnished free of expense.

With genuine pride in the hearty response given by the townspeople and with great pleasure in being instrumental to the success of the Victory loan, the local committee will present the tokens acquired in the Fifth Liberty loan campaign to the public library for safe keeping. These consist of German helmets and the honor flag. The total subscriptions amounted to $21,500, contributed by 124 people, exceeding the quota ($18,900) by a good margin. Without doubt additional subscriptions made through other banks will increase this total.
