Miss Katherine Smith of Hudson, N. H., has accepted a position as teacher in the Highland district for the coming school year. Miss Smith will graduate from Keene Normal school elementary course this June.

Pelham girls attending Keene Normal school have received their grade placements in the Wheelock Training school for the coming year. Miss Phyllis Atwood, first grade, and Miss Helen Zolkos, fifth grade, for the first nine weeks; Miss Ruth Richardson, fourth grade, during the second semester.

Dover Grange Wins.

Last Thursday was the regular date for the Pelham Grange meeting, but owing to the state regional meeting at Derry the meeting was deferred till last Friday night. Twelve local Grangers attended at Derry and witnessed a competitive drill between teams from Dover, Raymond and West Rockingham which was excellent. Dover Grange team with its flag drill won the award as the best in this section.

There were many interesting speakers who presented New Hampshire's place in the poultry world. The campaign for advertising eggs and poultry was explained in an interesting manner and Hon. John H. Kinghorn's address on the World Poultry Congress was well received.

HAYES-GENOTER HISTORY AND GENEALOGY LIBRARY

Friday night Pelham Grange featured children's night and had as guests nearly 200 children and their parents.
