

Pelham, N. H., Aug. 17.

Albert A. Tallant and William J. Quigley were accepted for the new draft army by the exemption board at Milford this week. Elmer L. Coombs, Nelson W. Barter and Walter S. Burton, who were also called for examination were exempted for physical reasons.

George B. Smith suffered a severe shock this morning in Lawrence while on his way to market there. Feeling bad, he stopped his team and had just stepped to the sidewalk when he was afflicted. He was taken to his home at Gage hill by automobile and is considered in a very dangerous condition.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ducharme, Aug. 10.

Ervin Burton was operated on at the Lowell General hospital last Wednesday night for appendicitis. He is progressing favorably.

Harvey F. Hillman registered in Waukegan, Ill., where he is employed with the National Envelope Co., and has been accepted by the exemption board in that district.

Sherman Hobbs and Harry E. Lewis are shingling the town hall.

William Bedard is erecting a new residence on the Gage hill-Lawrence road.

The daughter born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones has been named Elizabeth Sherman.