

Pelham

Pledge Campaign to Sell Stamps, Bonds; Graduation Held

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., June 20—A "pledge campaign" for the sale of defense savings bonds and stamps will be conducted throughout this town Monday and Tuesday next week under the direction of Walter S. Burton, chairman of a local committee and Frank C. Foisie, co-chairman. Assistants in the drive who have been allotted special fields for solicitations are as follows: Mrs. Teresa Muldoon, Miss Helen Zolkos, Daniel S. Atwood, Mrs. Anna Horskin, Miss Phyllis Atwood, Ernest G. Sherburne, Mrs. Flossie Hammer, Miss Katherine Foisie, Frederick Garland, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Simpson, Miss Shirley Ann Atwood, Richard Ivers, Mrs. Florence Foisie and Mrs. Mabel A. Burton.

No deposit is required with the pledge to buy either bonds or stamps. An enthusiastic response is hoped for. At a recent meeting Pelham Grange voted to purchase two $25 defense bonds. Also the Grange will hold a benefit for the U. S. O. at Pelham town hall next Tuesday night.

Donald R. Bagley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Bagley of Gage Hill, enlisted in the U. S. air force at Manchester, Thursday as a cadet glider pilot and was inducted into service yesterday. He was detailed to Westover Field, Chicopee, for basic training.

Otis E. Titcomb, Jr., recently inducted into army service and given indefinite furlough, has been assigned to Fort Devens.

Local teachers have been asked by Supt. Barrett to assist in the registration for gasoline rationing during the afternoon of July 1, 2 and 3.

Edmond Jurewicz has been called to the bedside of his brother, Pvt. Raymond Jurewicz at the Kent hospital, Dover, Del. Pvt. Jurewicz of the 80th bomb squadron, recently was seriously injured when struck by an automobile in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jurewicz, parents of the injured soldier, were unable to make the journey.

Graduation exercises of Pelham junior high school class of 1942, were held Thursday evening, at Pelham town hall.