

Mary E. Hobbs. "Aunt Molly" to almost everyone in Pelham who knew her. For more than 60 years she served as the Town Librarian from 1892 when she first started at age 18 to the 1950's. She had a good selection of childrens books and used to read stories aloud to children. She was very family oriented and had a sweet disposition.