PUBLIC LIBRARY

TRUSTEES' REPORT

Only one purchase of new books was made during the last year, but rather more were bought at that time than usual. We are contemplating another purchase of new books at an early date.

The roof of the library building was repaired last summer and a new book rack built in the attic to accommodate the books which must be removed from the stock room.

Perhaps a word in regard to how the library money is expended might be pertinent. Prior to 1922 the town paid for repairs, janitor service, fuel, etc., and in that year $225.00 was raised and appropriated for the library. Since then the Trustees have taken over the entire care of the library and $400.00 has been raised annually for this purpose from and including 1922. The additional $175.00 being to take care of this additional expense.

There is a balance of $509.53 in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year, but in this balance is included a part of the bequest of the late M. Amanda Cloyd which is still unexpended. In view of these facts the Trustees recommend and request the usual appropriation of four hundred dollars.

As was stated in our report last year, the reports of the librarian and treasurer contain all the essential information regarding the library. For this reason, unless something especially worthy of note transpires and the idea does not meet with too strenuous opposition, the Trustees' report will hereafter be omitted from the annual report.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY S. SHERBURNE,
BERTHA A. GREELEY,
SHERMAN HOBBS,

Library Trustees.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

---

To the School Board of Pelham,

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit herewith my eighth annual report as superintendent of your schools. To this I have attached a report from your school nurse to which I direct your attention.

HIGH SCHOOL

The expense of maintaining a two-year school in Pelham is not substantially larger than it would be for a one-year school. It does not require any additional teachers and the extra cost expense for books, supplies, and the larger fraction of the teachers' time charged to the high school, is likely to be offset by a saving in tuition. It is doubtful also whether the board has any legal right to discontinue a second year which has been established by vote of the district without orders for so doing from the court. It would seem advisable to me to leave the school in statu quo. I believe that the Pelham people will do well to consider the following figures taken from the general statistics reports for the past seven years before taking any retrogressive steps.

General Statistics For	Pupils Attending Outside High Schools	Local High School	Totals	Average Membership in all Schools
1920	15	0	15	169
1921	14	0	14	186
1922	15	9	24	203
1923	14	17	31	185
1924	19	9	28	163
1925	19	12	31	161
1926	11	16	27	154

Present membership in all schools, 164.

These figures show that the number of your children attending high schools has doubled since the establishment of the Pelham High, while the average membership of all your schools is at present even less than it was seven years ago. Our public school system has grown up in this country on the theory of the desirability of the general diffusion of knowledge rather than confining it to the chosen few. The continuance of the Pelham High School is in conformity with this theory. It should receive the support of all, and the parents patronizing the school should not make it necessary for the school officials to inaugurate a campaign each year in order to secure a per cent of attendance high enough to insure its approval by the state authorities.

MEMBERSHIP

The number of your pupils have been fairly stationary for the past four years. At the present time the number of pupils at No. 4 is larger than at any other school except the consolidated school. This is probably due to the fact that this section of the town has been more accessible to larger centres. With your main highways kept in as good condition as they have been this winter, better than the streets of the cities, you may expect an increase rather than any farther decrease in population in some other sections of the town.

TEACHERS

Four new teachers were employed for this year, two from the Lowell Normal and two from the New Hampshire University. All four seem to be conscientious and painstaking in their work and are apparently getting very good results.

SCHOOL COSTS

I conceive it to be the duty of school officials first of all to establish and maintain as good schools as the funds at their disposal may permit, and second, to advise their constituents as to the amount of funds necessary for maintaining as good a system of schools as they can afford. It has been my observation and experience that a community will be generous in its financial backing of its school officials as long as it feels that it is receiving a hundred cents' worth for every dollar expended, and that it will commence to be niggardly in its appropriations when it is suspicious of any waste of its funds.

The total costs of the elementary schools of New Hampshire per pupil of average membership in the different school districts varied for last year from $37.60 to $266.64 with a medium cost of $78.57. The cost in Pelham last year was $70.15, or $8.42 less than the median for the state.

This is not, however, the whole story as far as it concerns the tax payers. The large number of children in proportion to the taxable property may make the support of the public schools burdensome. The expenditure for public education, including both the elementary and secondary schools, per $1000 of equalized valuation ranged in this state for last year from $1.29 to $28.68 with a median at $9.90. For Pelham the expenditure was $14.18 of which sum $4.58 was borne by the state, leaving $9.60 for Pelham's share as against $8.25 as a median expense to the school districts of the state.

GENERAL STATISTICS FOR 1926

Number of different pupils registered	188
Average membership	154
Per cent of attendance	90.17
Number of visits of school board members	31
Number of visits of the superintendent	146
Number of visits of citizens and others	128

There has been a steady improvement in the per cent of attendance in the past seven years. For the 1920 report it was 84.7%. The absence has been cut down over athird which means the utilizing of about $800 more of the expenditures.

ROLL OF PUPILS NOT ABSENT NOR TARDY FOR THE YEAR 1925-1926

Walter Young, Josephine Carlton, Herbert Currier, Edward Currier, Roy Hardy, Leonard Stys, Milton Rowan, Charles Peabody, Gertrnde Currier.

Thanking the board for the many courtesies shown me during the past year, this report is,

Respectfully submitted,

LOUIS DeWITT RECORD,

Supt. of Schools, Union No. 27.

February 1, 1927.

REPORT OF HEADMASTER

Pelham, N. H., February 8, 1927.

Mr. Louis D. Record, Supt. of Schools,

Pelham School Committe,

Citizens of Pelham:

I herewith submit an annual report of activities and work accomplished in Pelham High School from September 13 to date.

On September 13, 1926, the Pelham High School commenced it's second year as a two-year high school. This fact proves that last year's experiment of a two-year high school was a success. The enrollment this year consists of nine pupils in the ninth grade and three pupils in the tenth grade.

The standing of the high school may be shown by the fact that a member of the tenth grade transferred to Nashua High School and entered the Sophomore class there.

The high school curriculum is as follows:

YEAR I	English	40 min. period—5 days per week
	Hist of Civilization	40 min. period—5 days per week
	French II	40 min. period—5 days per week
	Algebra	40 min. period—5 days per week
YEAR II	English	40 min. period—5 days per week
	Mod. European Hist.	40 min. period—5 days per week
	French III	40 min. period—5 days per week
	Algebra	40 min. period—5 days per week

For a 20 minute period each day the two classes have fundamentals. Fundamentals consists of a review drill in the subjects which form the basis of all education, such as arithmetic, spelling, grammar, geography and silent reading.

As in previous years the Junior High and High School held a bazaar. This was practically entirely under the control of the pupils. An organization was formed, the president of which conducted all the business meetings to plan for the bazaar. This organization also had a secretary and treasurer, the latter took all charge of the money from sales and entertainment. The school planned to use the money, received from the bazaar, to put the name "Pelham Junior High School" in front of the building.

During the week of November 15 the members of the school sold various magazines published by the Crowell Company. One half the price of each year's subscription was received by the school. This money was deposited in the bank with the bazaar fund.

The fact that the school lacked a janitor was criticised by the State Inspector, Mr. Morrison. This would be an improvement in several ways: first it would improve the appearance of the rooms and basements, second it would hold the respect of the pupils for their school building and third, it would take from the high school teachers a responsibility which requires much time and which is not in their programs.

I wish to extend the thanks of the Pelham High School teachers to the superintendent, the school board, to the parents and all the citizens of Pelham who have contributed to the success which may have been attained during this school year.

Respectfully,

RUTH LONG, Headmaster.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE

To the School Board and Citizens of Pelham:

I herewith tender my report as school nurse for the past year.

The number of children with defective teeth and enlarged tonsils remain high. There have been some corrections made in these defects, but, there are still a great many more that need corrections.

I think a large number of the children who are underweight are those who come a long distance and bring their lunch. I wish the parents could realize how much a child would benefit from a hot lunch such as a hot soup or other foods that could be put into thermos bottles. I notice very little milk brought for lunch in the whole town.

Most of the children with defective vision I have found in Gage-Hill School and No. 1 at the Centre. I think we should try to find out if it is due to the lighting of those buildings and if so try and remedy it.

There has been very little sickness in the schools. A few cases of chicken-pox and some mumps.

I find the children very much interested in health work and show the results.

I have spent as much time as possible in the homes as I believe in that way we get the confidence of the parents and get better and more results. There should be a lot more time spent in the homes, but, my time is divided perportinally between the towns of the district and can give only a certain amount to Pelham, but it is in the follow-up work or home visits where you get the results of your work.

Below is a list of defects found, improvements shown.

	Treatments secured or improvements shown
No. examined	171
No. of per cent or more underweight	18
No. defective teeth	60	15

Respectfully submitted,

JOSIE MERRILL, School Nurse.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON M. A. CLOYD FUND

The committee appointed at the 1925 School meeting, met during that summer to discuss the expending of the M. A. Cloyd fund of $500 for Gumpus School. Mrs. Catherine Donovan was invited to meet with us.

Knowing Miss Cloyd's interest in books, we decided to spend a part of this fund for supplementary reading books. As the blackboards were very poor and the stove inadequate for proper heating we first purchased a Kaustine heater and plate blackboards, both of which have proven very satisfactory.

Mr. Don Overlock kindly donated a book-case and forty-five books have been purchased to start a library to be known as the Cloyd Memorial Library. We trust that these books will prove a source of great enjoyment as well as instruction to the children and a suitable memorial to the donor, Miss M. A. Cloyd.

We wish to thank Miss Frances Hobbs and Miss Mary Hobbs for their assistance in selecting and buying the books.

It is the sense of the committee that a balance of the fund be left at interest and the income used to replenish or add to the library or for other needs which may arise in the future.
