

Captain Gilbert Coburn's sawmill on Bridge Street opposite Jericho Road, built in 1840. The Captain's grandfather Edward, a soldier during the French and Indian War, was born in Dracut in 1721. In 1769, he bought land a few rods north of the state line. This photograph predates 1863, when the farm was sold.